1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 3 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Grondahl (U. S. Pat. No. 2,562,843) or Japan'995 (Japan 61-128995) in view of either Rehm (U. S. Pat. No. 2,322,390) or Japan'006 (Japan 10-253006).

Re claims 3 and 9, Grondahl and Japan'995 are each cited disclosing a vapor generator comprising a case (18 Japan'995 and 16a in Grondahl) for storing water, a water supply, and a steam exhaust that differs from the claim only in the recitation of the water level detector. Japan'006 (as at 8) and Rehm (as at 39) disclose the water level detector. It therefore would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify the device of either Grondahl or Japan'995, to include a water level detector as taught by either Rehm or Japan'006, for the purpose of ensuring there's sufficient water for generating steam. Re claims 19 and 20, Rehm also disclose the diaphragm (38).

3. Claims 1 and 2 are allowed.

4. Claims 4-18, stand objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Pile, Hampel, Kim et al., McDonald, Davies et al., SU'619, Elfving, France'054, Jang, Bochud, Steen and Marcussen, note the generators.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to FRANKIE L. STINSON whose telephone number is (571) 272-1308. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F from 5:30 am to 2:00 pm and some Saturdays from approximately 5:30 am to 11:30 am.
